

Annual Report 1994-1995

One EAAF member was invited to participate in the "First International Workshop on Physical Anthropology, Forensic Sciences and Human Rights", organized by the laboratory of Physical Anthropology at the Museum of the University of Antioquía, Medellín. He also participated in other meetings with representatives from governments agencies and nongovernmental institutions in the cities of Bogotá and Medellín.

Annual Report 1993

The team participated in an international seminar of Forensic Sciences and Human Rights, organized by the Department of Anthropology of the School of Humanities of the University of Colombia. The team also gave a lecture on forensic science and human rights violations to representatives from the Prosecutor's Office and the School of Criminology and Criminal Studies.

Annual Report 1991

The team was invited by the Association of Relatives of the Disappeared (ASFADES) to conduct several training seminars with government officials, lawyers, archaeologists, doctors, sociologists and anthropologists. The team also held a workshop with families of the disappeared from around the country. Finally, the team met with human rights organizations and lawyers working on the case of the takeover of the National Palace in 1985, in which several judges were killed and many people were disappeared, to discuss the possibility of participating in investigations related to the case.